

B Complete these sentences by using a term from the text. Then write the words in the puzzle.

- Users have to enter a p..... to gain access to a network.
- You can download a lot of f..... or public domain programs from the net.
- Hundreds of h..... break into computer systems every year.
- A computer v..... can infect your files and corrupt your hard disk.
- The process of encoding data so that unauthorized users can't read the data is known as e.....
- A f..... is a device which allows limited access to an internal network from the Internet.
- You can include an a..... as part of your e-mail message.
- This company uses d..... techniques to decode (or decipher) secret data.

3 Listening

Listen to Diana Wilson, a member of the Internet Safety Foundation. She is talking about cyberspace's dangers and benefits for children. Complete the notes in this table.

Benefits

- The Internet brings benefits for (1)..... and entertainment.

Risks

- manipulation of children
- invasions of (2).....
- child (3) .....
- violence and neo-Nazi (4) .....

Solutions

- There are websites (5) ..... for children.
- Internet (6) ..... programs let parents block objectionable Web sites.
- Websites should (7) ..... their content with a label, from child-friendly to over 18-only.

But this may limit free expression.

CyberPatrol, from SurfControl, Inc [the popular Internet filtering software] <http://www.surfcontrol.com>